

Beyond Employment Rates Series

Part-time vs. Full-time Employment

Visually Impaired vs. Sighted

24.1% of visually impaired individuals work part-time.

18.7% of sighted individuals work part-time.

75.9% of visually impaired individuals work full-time.

81.3% of sighted individuals work full-time.

Of the 24.1% of visually impaired individuals who work part-time, 16.3% would rather work full-time.

Of the 18.7% of sighted individuals who work part-time, 13.8% would rather work full-time.

18.5% of visually impaired men versus 12.7% of sighted men work part-time.

29.9% of visually impaired women versus 25.3% of sighted women work part-time.

Reference:

McDonnall, M. C., Cmar, J. L., & McKnight, Z. S. (2022). Beyond employment rates: Full-time versus part-time employment for people with visual impairments. Journal of Visual Impairment & Blindness, 116(1), 7-13.